Report under Fit India campaign

As a part of the fit Indian campaign initiative our college successfully organized a Cricket Tournament from 4th April to 15th April 2025 on the college grounds. The event aimed to promote physical fitness team work and a healthy life style among students in line with objective of Fit India movement launched by the Government of India.

A total of 04 teams participated in the tournament comprising students from various semesters. The matches were played in a knock out format generating great enthusiasm and sportsman ship among the players and spectators alike. The tournament began with an inaugural ceremony graced by the College Principal Prof. Sadaf Nazir who highlighted the importance of fitness and encouraged students to engage in regular physical activities. The convener Sports Prof. Inayat-Ullah Dar and College Physical Training Instructor Dr. Mubashir Nisar in promoting fitness, discipline and sportsmanship among the students. The P.T.I is planning and organizing regular Physical training session sports events and fitness awareness programmes including initiatives under the Fit India Campaign. The tournament was resounding success, not just in terms of sporting action but also in promoting fitness and unity among students.
