The program aimed to instil patriotism, cultural awareness, and respect for the nation's heritage among students and staff. The session began with a brief introduction highlighting the importance of Vande Mataram in India's history. The song was composed by Bankim Chandra Chatterjee in the 1870s. It was officially adopted as the National Song of India in 1950. Vande Mataram played a crucial role during the Indian freedom struggle. It served as a powerful slogan and a source of inspiration for freedom fighters, symbolizing unity, patriotism, and resistance against British rule.
