Report on Celebration of the 200th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Jyotirao Phule

Department of Political Science Government Degree College Kangan celebrated the 200th birth anniversary of Mahatma Jyotirao Phule with great enthusiasm and reverence on 19-02-2026. The event was organized to commemorate the life, works, and enduring legacy of the great social reformer who dedicated his life to equality, education, and social justice. The program commenced with the welcome addressed by Prof. Zahoor Ahmad Dar the Head of the Department of the Political Science. The Principal of the college addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of remembering the contributions of Phule in promoting women's education and eradicating caste-based discrimination in Indian society.

Faculty members and students delivered insightful speeches highlighting Phule's pioneering efforts in establishing the first school for girls and advocating for the rights of the oppressed and marginalized communities. The speakers reiterated how Phule, along with Savitribai Phule, played a transformative role in shaping modern India through their progressive ideas and relentless struggle against social evils.

The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by a senior faculty member. The event served as a reminder of Mahatma Jyotirao Phule's vision of an inclusive and equitable society.
