Report on Journey of Seventy Five Years of Indian Constitution

As part of the Celebration of 75 Years of Adoption of Constitution of India under the tagline HamaraSamvidhanHamaraSwabhiman and 150th Birth Anniversary of SardarVallabhai Patel, Department of Political Science Government Degree College Kangan organised a Lecture on "Journey of 75 Years of Indian Constitution" on 10-06-2025. The main purpose of the lecture was to explore the Constitution's evolution, highlighting its successes, challenges, and enduring relevance in contemporary India. The lecture was delivered by Prof. Zahoor Ahmad Dar Head Department of Political Science. The lecture began by revisiting the historical context of the Constituent Assembly's formation and its meticulous work in drafting the Constitution. Emphasis was placed on the diverse representation within the Assembly and the debates surrounding key provisions. The significance of adopting the Constitution on January 26, 1950, was underscored. A detailed examination of Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy formed a core part of the lecture. The speaker elucidated how these provisions enshrine individual liberties while also setting social and economic goals for the nation. The interplay and occasional tensions between these two sets of principles were also discussed. The lecture traced the evolution of the Constitution through various amendments. The speaker explained how these amendments have adapted the Constitution to changing societal needs and judicial interpretations. The lecture acknowledged the challenges faced by the Constitution, such as ensuring social justice, protecting minority rights, and balancing individual liberties with national security. The speaker emphasized the importance of continuous engagement with the Constitution to address contemporary issues.

The lecture provided a comprehensive overview of the Indian Constitution's journey, emphasizing its adaptability and resilience. It highlighted the ongoing dialogue between the past, present, and future, urging citizens to actively participate in upholding constitutional values and shaping the future of Indian democracy.
