Report on Essay Writing Competition

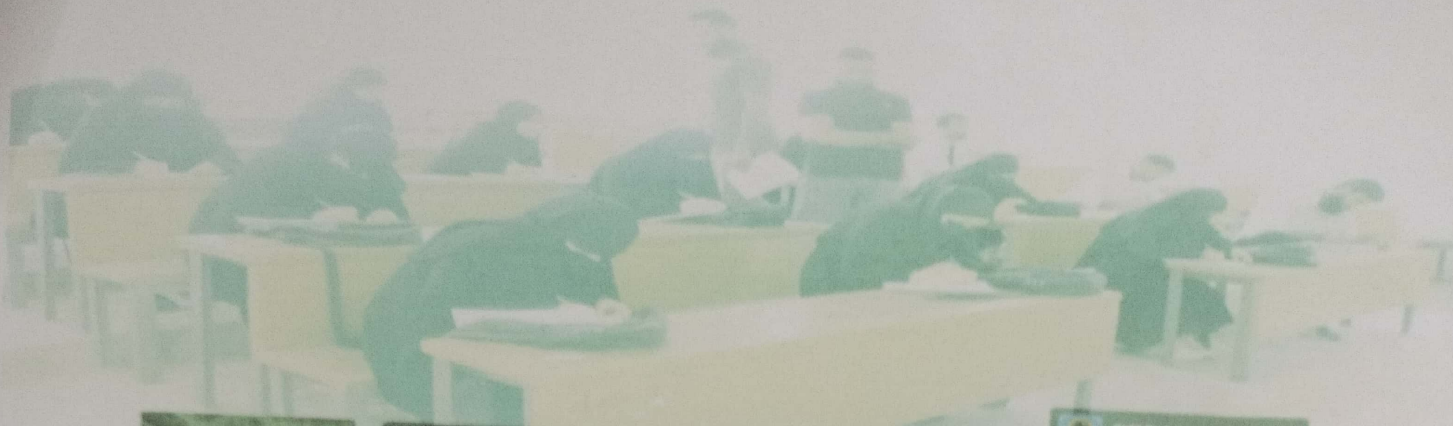

To commemorate the 79th Independence Day the Department of Education and Islamic Studies in collaboration with NSS units of Govt Degree College Kangan organised an Essay Writing Competition under the theme of “Role of Education in Promoting Peace and National Unity” on 04-08-2025. The programme was organised to inculcate values that promote the national pride and encourage the students to reflect on how education fosters harmony, understanding and inclusive development in a diverse country. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across all semesters and streams. More than 15 students submitted their essays in English language showcasing their understanding, creativity and vision for a peaceful and united India. The evaluation was done by panel of judges (including senior faculty members) on the basis of the different criteria like the relevance of the theme, content quality, language proficiency etc. After a thorough evaluation, the following students achieved positions mentioned below.

1. Imtiyaz ahmad Bokda (3rd Semester)
2. Mudasir Ahmad Bijran (3rd Semester)
3. Hifa Sidiq (3rd Semester)

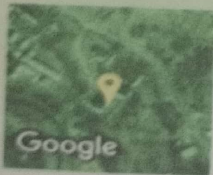

The participants will be felicitated with certificates and mementos during the Independence Day function on 15th August 2025.
