Report on Governance and Constitutional Role in Strengthening Democracy.

As part of Celebration of 75 Years of Adoption of Constitution of India and 150th Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhai Patel, Department of Political Science Government Degree College Kangan under the patronage of worthy Principal Dr. Sadaf Nazir organised a debate on "Governance and Constitutional Role in Strengthening Democracy" on 21-02-2025. The main purpose of the debate was to examine the significance of governance within constitutional set up and the pivotal role played by the Indian Constitution in shaping the governance in the country. The debate started with the address of Prof. Zahoor Ahmad Dar Head Department of Political Science. He said that the role of the Indian Constitution in governance highlights its central function as the supreme legal document, defining the framework for government institutions, outlining citizens' fundamental rights, and establishing key principles like equality, justice, and liberty, thereby acting as a guiding force for effective and democratic governance in India. He also emphasised the significance of the Constitution in upholding checks and balances between different branches of government, ensuring accountability, and providing a mechanism for judicial review to protect individual rights against potential state overreach.

Prof. Hamid Ullah Ganie Head of the Department of Urdu in his speech emphasised the role of constitution in promoting the spirit of good governance. He said that the Constitution of India establishes a system of separation of powers among the legislative, executive, and judiciary, ensuring checks and balances on each branch of government. Prof. Bilal Ahmad Head Department of Education in his speech discussed the political character of constitution. Indian Constitution plays a vital role in governance, providing a framework for accountability, individual rights, national integration, and policy-making. Its principles and provisions continue to shape India's political, social, and economic landscape, ensuring that the country remains a democratic, secular, and socialist republic. The programme ended with the vote of Thanks presented by Dr. Kaiser Ul-Haq Lecturer Department of Urdu. In his concluding remarks he appreciated every one who participated in the debate and made it clear that the debate provided a comprehensive understanding of the Indian Constitution's role in governance, highlighting its significance, principles, and impact on the country's political, social, and economic landscape.
