Report on Intra College Painting Competition

The Department of Economics, Government Degree College Kangan, conducted an intra-college painting competition on the theme "Portraits of Unsung Heroes of Indian Independence". The event was held under the "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign to commemorate 79 years of Indian independence. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various semesters, who expressed their artistic interpretations of the theme through powerful visual narratives. The artwork presented was carefully evaluated by a screening committee comprising Prof. Waseem Yaseen, Prof. Zahoor Ahmad Dar, Prof. Inayatullah Dar, Dr. Mohammad Shahid Zaman, Dr. Mohd Younus Thokar, and Dr. Aatina Nasir Malik. Following a thorough assessment, Mumtaza Bano of B.G. 5th Semester was awarded first place, with Rihana Tabasum of B.G. 3rd Semester and Rahie Bilal of B.G. 5th Semester securing second and third positions, respectively. Prof. Inayat Ullah Dar, Head of the Department of Kashmiri, graced the occasion and appreciated the efforts of the participants and organizers. The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Mohammad Shahid Zaman, Head of the Department of Economics, who acknowledged the collective contributions that made the program a success.
