Report on Nayi Chetna 3.0 campaign

In a continued effort to promote gender equality and address Gender Based Violence, Government Degree College Kangan hosted an impactful awareness programme on 23rd January 2025, as part of the Nayi Chetna 3.0 campaign. The initiative aimed to sensitize students, faculty and local community members about the significance of addressing gender-based issues in society, with an emphasis on eliminating bias and violence against marginalized genders. Prof. Waseem Yaseen programme officer NSS delivered an impactful lecture and highlighted the impact of gender bias and provided insights into the different types of gender based violence. Dr. Amir Amanullah (Librarian) in his speech informed participants about the legal frameworks in place to protect the victims of Gender Based Violence and their rights under Indian law. He stressed on the engagement of local community, students and faculty in creating a supportive environment for victims and initiating action against gender based violence.

The programme remained very interactive in which various questions and queries of the students were addressed. The programme concluded with formal vote of thanks proposed by Mr. Amjid Ali. The programme was organized under guidance and patronage of principal Prof. Sadaf Nazir.
