Report on Panel Discussion Regarding Understanding the Preamble of Indian Constitution

As part of Celebration of 75 Years of Adoption of Constitution of India and 150th Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhai Patel, Department of Political Science Government Degree College Kangan organised a panel discussion on "Understanding the Preamble of Indian Constitution" on 18-02-2025. The main purpose of the discussion was to explore the historical context of the Constitution, its key features, contemporary challenges, and its relevance in modern India. The discussion was moderated by Prof. Zahoor Ahmad Dar Head Department of Political Science. The discussion began with an overview of the historical context leading to the framing of the Constitution. Panellists highlighted the contributions of the Constituent Assembly and the challenges faced in drafting a constitution for a diverse nation.

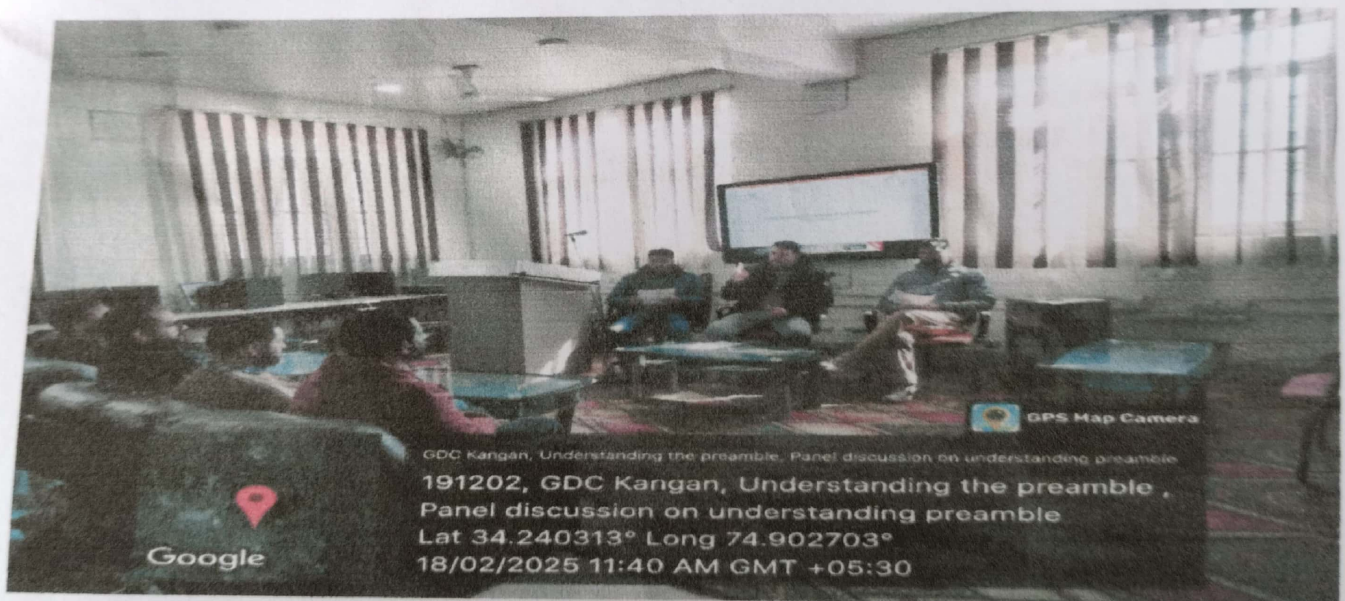

As the discussion evolved, the participants actively engaged in a variety of topics from the inception of thought of the Preamble in the Constituent Assembly to the contemporary relevance of the constitutional vision. The discussion provided an inclusive space for all participants to contribute their thoughts and ideas. Central to the discussion was the pivotal role of the Preamble and how it upheld the vision of the framers of the Constitution. The panel discussion provided a comprehensive understanding of the Preamble's significance, relevance, and impact on Indian society. The event encouraged students, faculty, and staff to reflect on the Preamble's principles and their role in promoting a just, equitable, and harmonious society. The discussion ended with vote of thanks presented by Dr. Jashangeer Gulzar.
